- 3) For the proposed RBA at the concrete pad near Survey Unit 3 in the submarine pens –
 - a) All documents discussing and/or purportedly demonstrating why that area would or would not be considered not potentially radiologically impacted. This should include all evidence as to when the pad was created.

A letter dated May 20, 2021 provided a final determination on your FOIA request. A search for responsive records has been completed and approximately 364 potentially responsive records have been located. This letter provides the fourth and final phase of release. The nature of this particular FOIA request requires a multi-step search and review process for a reasonable search of records. For requests with broad scopes, like this one, we first search document repositories using keywords. The results of this search yields “potentially responsive documents.” Some or many of these initial results are found to be not responsive during the subsequent “review” step. Accordingly, broad requests like this can yield a large difference between “potentially responsive records” and “responsive records” which can also lead to longer release timeframes.

Today’s final release addresses 56 records that have been identified as potentially responsive:

- 30 were deemed not responsive to the request;
- 20 records are withheld in full under FOIA Exemption 5;
- 4 records are partially withheld under FOIA Exemption 6, with the remainder of the records released to you;
- The 2 remaining records are released to you in full.

The instances of exempt information have been redacted.

FOIA Exemption 5 [5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(5)] exempts from disclosure records that reflect the Navy’s internal deliberations, the release of which could be harmful by discouraging the free and frank exchange of opinions or potentially result in public confusion by disclosing information that is not consistent with the outcome of the deliberative process.

FOIA Exemption 6 [5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6)] exempts from disclosure information that, if disclosed, would invade an individual’s personal privacy. Personal emails were the items redacted from these records.

Please be advised that fees associated with the processing of your request are waived in this instance.

You have the right to an appeal. It must be received (i.e., post-marked if by mail or submitted if by FOIAonline) within 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. Please provide the following in your appeal:

- a letter requesting an appeal that explains what you are appealing with any supporting arguments or reasons you think may be worthy of consideration;
- a copy of your initial request;
- a copy of the letter of denial.

There are two ways to file an appeal—through FOIAonline or by mail.

corner), enter your data into the field that subsequently appears, and click "Save" (at the bottom left of the screen).
